CAPSA SOLUTIONS ANNOUNCES ACQUISITION OF ARTROMICK MOBILE SOLUTIONS GROUP

Company Adds Additional Strength in the Long-Term and Acute Healthcare Markets

WOODINVILLE, WA and COLUMBUS, OH (December 1, 2009) – Capsa Solutions, a leading provider of storage, processing and transport products, has announced the acquisition of Artromick Mobile Solutions Group and their comprehensive line of medication, medical and mobile computing carts for the extended and acute healthcare sectors. Artromick Mobile Solutions Group was previously owned by Sterling Partners, a Chicago and Baltimore-based private equity firm.

Capsa Solutions currently services the needs for their healthcare, retail, and light manufacturing customers with MMI Med Carts and IRSG product lines. The addition of Artromick further widens a broad product offering for the healthcare market and offers Capsa Solutions' customers more options.

"Artromick has a history of integrating superior design with the latest technology features to improve the efficiency of caregivers at the point of care," said Capsa Solutions CEO Dave Burns. "The addition of Artromick to the Capsa Solutions family is an absolute win for our healthcare partners. Our spectrum of cart, storage, and mobility solutions fill needs for most any healthcare application. Artromick is a strong and healthy brand that will continue to grow as part of Capsa Solutions."

The combined product lines of Artromick, MMI Med Carts and IRSG cover virtually every room of an acute or long-term healthcare facility. Included in the product portfolio are carts for point of care computing, medication control, anesthesia, malignant hyperthermia, transport and more. Additionally, the company's high-density mobile storage and fixed shelving are key components for central supply and materials management and a host of additional specialty care carts serve varied roles in a facility.

"The acquisition of Artromick Mobile Solutions Group by Capsa Solutions creates a significantly stronger healthcare firm for our domestic and international core markets," said Artromick CEO Paul Guth. "This alliance of products and professionals with extensive healthcare experience will drive new innovation that facilitates accuracy in the delivery of patient care."
